TURNIP THE BEET

- Our sweet tooth always be rollin'

Love dessert? Love to bake? Do you dream of making macaroons?

Come join us for our macaroon madness workshop! We will guide you through a brief history of macaroons, and then teach you how to master the "most difficult cookie". Class is 3 hours long and each student will get hands on action from start to finish. Each student takes home a box of their own macaroons, and the recipes used for the day. Classes are held on Friday once a month, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This month look for the macaroon class on January 13th, and yes that means its Friday the 13th.

Attention! Adventurous children between the ages of 7-12!

Its CUPCAKE CAMP TIME! This is something you don't want to miss. Learn to execute, bake, and eat the most scrumptious and stunning cupcakes you've ever made. During this 2 hour workshop, we will learn fun, kid appropriate tips and tricks while we fill, frost and decorate several varieties of delicious cupcakes. Each student takes home decorated cupcakes and the recipes .

Openings at the Kore Gallery this month

This month there will be two shows at the Kore gallery. The show in the main gallery will be a collection of abstract paintings by Chris Hartsfield. The title of the show is, Abstracts: New Directions, the show will be hung on the 2nd of January and will run through until the 30th. The second show at Kore Gallery will be a joint jewelry show between two sister, Uneena Duke and Kay Willson.

The title of their joint show is Casual Elegance, this show will also start on the 2nd and end on the 30th of January. There will be an opening reception on Saturday the 7th of January held at the Kore gallery for 4:30 until 8:30 pm.

Hope Culture Coffee is opening on the courtyard at Mellwood Art and Entertainment Center.!

Hope Culture Coffee will be opening their doors in January. They will proudly be serving freshly brewed Sunergos coffee locally roasted here in Louisville KY. Stop in and have a cup of their professionally brewed coffee and take a seat. Hope Culture Coffee Shop hopes to develop into a full coffee and espresso bar in the near future, but for the first few months and as they get their feet on the ground they will just be serving drip coffees. But, plans are in the works so stay tuned and up to date to new events at hopeculture.coffee

Also if you have not done so yet please don't forget to attend our first ever Mellwood March Art show. It's an all indoor show to include 60 local artists, also attending will be Fat Head Rescue and Harvey's House Rabbit Rescue and Sanctuary. Both non-profit animal rescues will be bringing adoptable pets, so come prepared to fall in love!

This is our first ever all indoor show, there will be at least 60 artists joined into the show with musical performances and lots of local beer and food to be had. Kennedy Wickers who has played at the Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts and at Riverfest will be one of the many artists performing.
